

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

MARISSA BROWN,

Plaintiff,

v.

RICHARD TROVATO,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:23-cv-09895-JGLC

STIPULATION AND PROPOSED CONFIDENTIALITY ORDER

WHEREAS, the Parties having agreed to the following terms of confidentiality, and the Court having found that good cause exists for the issuance of an appropriately tailored confidentiality order pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, it is hereby ORDERED that the following restrictions and procedures shall apply to the information and documents exchanged by the parties in connection with the pre-trial phase of this action:

1. Counsel for any party may designate any document or information, in whole or in part, as confidential if counsel determines, in good faith, that such designation is necessary to protect the interests of the client in information that is proprietary, a trade secret or otherwise sensitive non-public information (“Confidential Information”). Information and documents designated by a party as confidential will be stamped “CONFIDENTIAL.”
2. Counsel for any party may further designate Confidential Information as “CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” when such documents or information contain sensitive non-public medical and mental health information.
3. The Confidential Information disclosed will be held and used by the person receiving such information solely for use in connection with the action.
4. In the event a party challenges another party’s designation of confidentiality, counsel shall make a good faith effort to resolve the dispute, and in the absence of a resolution, the challenging party may seek resolution by the Court. Nothing in this Confidentiality Order constitutes an admission by any party that Confidential Information disclosed in this case is relevant or admissible. Each party reserves the right to object to the use or admissibility of the Confidential Information.
5. All documents and information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall not be disclosed to any person, except:
 - a. The requesting party and counsel, including in-house counsel;

- b. Employees of such counsel assigned to and necessary to assist in the litigation;
 - c. Consultants or experts assisting in the prosecution or defense of the matter, to the extent deemed necessary by counsel; and
 - d. The Court (including the mediator, or other person having access to any Confidential Information by virtue of his or her position with the Court).
6. All documents and information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not be disclosed to any person, except:
 - a. Employees of such counsel assigned to and necessary to assist in the litigation;
 - b. Consultants or experts assisting in the prosecution or defense of the matter, to the extent deemed necessary by counsel; and
 - c. The Court (including the mediator, or other person having access to any Confidential Information by virtue of his or her position with the Court).
7. As for documents and information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” counsel for the receiving party may not show, provide copies of, discuss, or otherwise disclose the contents of Attorneys’ Eyes Only material to or with the receiving party.
8. Before disclosing or displaying Confidential Information to any person listed in Paragraphs 5 or 6, counsel must:
 - a. Inform the person of the confidential nature of the information or documents;
 - b. Inform the person that this Court has enjoined the use of the information or documents by him/her for any purpose other than this litigation and has enjoined the disclosure of the information or documents to any other person; and
 - c. Require each such person to sign an agreement to be bound by this Order in the form attached hereto.
9. The disclosure of a document or information without designating it as “confidential” shall not constitute a waiver of the right to designate such document or information as Confidential Information. If so designated, the document or information shall thenceforth be treated as Confidential Information subject to all the terms of this Stipulation and Order.
10. Any Personally Identifying Information (“PII”) (e.g., social security numbers, financial account numbers, passwords, and information that may be used for identity theft) exchanged in discovery shall be maintained by the receiving party in a manner that is secure and confidential.
11. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 502, inadvertent disclosure of privileged communications shall not constitute a waiver of the privilege in this matter provided the parties follow the steps set forth in Rule 502.

12. Notwithstanding the designation of information as “confidential” in discovery, there is no presumption that such information shall be filed with the Court under seal. The parties shall follow the Court’s procedures with respect to filing under seal.
13. At the conclusion of litigation, Confidential Information and any copies thereof shall be promptly (and in no event later than 30 days after entry of final judgment no longer subject to further appeal) returned to the producing party or certified as destroyed, except that the parties’ counsel shall be permitted to retain their working files on the condition that those files will remain protected.
